PIONEER CITIZEN DEAD.

Mr. Peter Walter Answers Final Summons.

A long illness, and reports of increasing weakness, had to some extent prepared us for the sad news which we received Tuesday evening, November 23rd of the death of Peter Walter. Though we realized that to him the end meant a release from suffering; and, in his simple christian faith, a blessed release; we also realized how great was the loss, not only to the family who loved and honored him so deservedly, but to all of us who had known him as the most public spirited of citizens, the most sincere and earnest of christians, the sweetest of musicians, and the kindest and most loyal of friends.

Any community which has outlived the crudeness of early origin, and become a more or less social organism, is indelibly impressed with the character of those who were a part of it in its early days. To none of the men of sturdy parentage, earnest endeavor and high character, who came to McGregor in those "early days" are we more indebted than to Mr. Walter. Here he spent the greater part of his life, here his best work was done. His talents, which were considerable, were devoted largely to local enterprises, and we have been the ones to receive the benefits of these good qualities, and to profit by the example he set in always doing, quite simply, that thing which was the right, the kindly, or the neighborly thing to do.

Peter Walter, born in Stockenheim, in the Grand-Duchy of Baden July 18th, 1833, came with parents, brothers and sisters to America in February, 1847. The family settled in Sandusky, Ohio, the parents dying two years later. In the early '50's he and his brother Hans came to Dubuque, and Peter was then married, in 1855, to Fraulein Marie Reiss. In 1856 the two brothers bro't their families to McGregor, where in partnership with his brother Hans Mr. Walter established the furniture and undertaking business, which under the name of "Walter Brothers" has transacted business for fifty years in the one place. Until the death of Hans in November 1901, these two brothers were never separated, occupying with their families, different sides of the same house. The death of his brother was a great shock to Mr. Walter, and he may be said to have never fully recovered from it.

With the exception of one three weeks old infant, the second child, the father's death is the first break in a family circle composed of parents and seven children. These children are Mrs. Otilia Pitts of Platteville, Wisconsin, Mrs. Matilda Helberg of Anamosa, Dr. John of McGregor, Mrs. Emma Benjamin of McGregor, Mrs. Anna Van Duzer of Rock Island, Illinois, William of McGregor and Mrs. Johanna Skemp of Dubuque. He leaves also, to mourn him and to revere his memory, sixteen grand children, a great grand Ducth by the Misses Helwig," and also, besides many members by the "McGregor Cornet and Orchestra Bands," we read of "The Singers Homeward Bound" and Der Deutsche Stoffel in Amerika" by "The Walter Family."

"The Famous Walter Family Band" as it has become familiar to us from the name on the b'g drum, was organized in 1878, after the dissolution of the McGregor Band. It consisted originally of Mr. Walter, the two sons John and Will, and the three younger daughters, the youngest being just ten years old. Gradually local musicians joined the organization, and tho' the personnel of the Band changed somewhat from time to time, the nucleus remained the same for many years, and all bore equal love for their leader. It was a group of the "Band Boys" who finally bore him to rest, performing with loving hearts this last service for dear "Vater Walter."

During its existence this Band was in great demand all round the countryside and soon gained a more than local reputation. Its services were gratuitously given for any number of local charitable and social enterprises, its leader even offering his services and disclaiming with his simple shyness any expression of thanks.

Through his music, perhaps, the community felt their strongest claim upon Mr. Walter. There are many people with a certain popular love of melody, or love of popular melody who call themselves, or are called, musicians. But how different that quality of musical interest which comes from a deep psychological and intellectual conception of the scope and possibility of that world of Harmony and Musical Sound to which only the chosen few can by nature be admitted! To this Realm we do not think we exaggerate in saying Mr. Walter had a key, and wandered there more freely and intelligently than any one who has lived amongst us. His great talent he passed to his children in no mean measure, and through them we continue to enjoy the benefits of the Father's gift.

As a citizen, Mr. Walter was always eager for the good of the community. A staunch Democrat, he disliked the turmoil and [illegible] of politics, and shrank from public office. He served on the school board for some time, and was also one of the stockholders and directors of the McGregor Cemetery Association.

Anything he had was at the public service, and there may be those who can remember the little old fashioned fire engine, the private property of the firm, which, in lieu of a public engine of practical size and power, so often served in a public capacity.

That in his family relations, he was most kind and thoughtful is apparent to the most casual observer on account of the great respect and devotion of all his large family. A reunion held a year ago to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary brought all the children home, except the son Will whose profession made it impossible for him to leave. The memory of this reunion

Mr. Walter had that wonderful quality to some extent a peculiar one of the German citizen of uniting a deep love of vaterland with the most loyal if unostentatious patriotism. We might spend much time in enumerating his good qualities, but after all simplicity was the keynote of his character, and we say it all when we repeat the words which passed from lip to lip at news of his death, "He was a good man."

The little German Presbyterian church on the hill probably owes its very existence to Mr. Walter. He was a devout man, and a lover of his chosen creed, tho never intolerant of any one else's. In early days, at the end of the week, there used to be a great brushing and cleaning up in the back of Walter Bros. shop, which on Sunday served as a place of worship. Here a German minister preached in the dear mother-tongue to as devout and sincere a little congregation as has ever gathered in the town. Stately German chorals, sung by deep and musical German voices from loyal simple German hearts set up a note of praise and prayer which must have rec'd gracious attention at that throne of grace which desires sincerity above all else. Finally the little church was built and regular worship was established. Here Mr. Walter worshipped with great gratification and raised his children, truly, in the nature and admonition of the Lord. He has filled at one time or another almost all the offices of the church, serving as elder, Sunday school teacher and superintendent: as musical director

Here Mr. Walter worshipped with great gratification, and raised his children, truly, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He has filled at one time or another almost all the offices of the church, serving as elder, Sunday school teacher and superintendent; as musical director of course. We are glad that we have worshipped there with him, and have in our mind the picture of the venerable figure sitting by the window, in the quaint and narrow pew; we are glad to have in our ears the sound of his fine old bass voice singing with its author's very spirit Luther's hymn "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott." That memory lifts us with reverence, and reminds us to heed the warning:

"Despise not thou thy father's weakest word,
Or his pure life, as was the golden thread
Whereon bright days were gathered head
by head
To Death, and few days dear and reverend [illegible]

We have at hand a poster of April 22nd, 1875, giving a program of a "Grand German American Concert" which Mr Walter instigated, planned and managed, for the purpose of raising money which should purchase a bell for the German Presbyterian church. We notice among the performers names which should rouse many a memory. "Lysberg's Grand Concert Waltz, by Miss Barnard," "Song by Miss Jennie Malone," "Piano Duett by the Misses Helwig," and also, besides many members by the "McGregor Cornet and Orchestra Bands," we read of "The Singers Homeward Bound" and Der Deutsche Stoffel in Amerika" by "The Walter Family."

"The Famous Walter Family Band" as it has become familiar to us from the name on the big drum, was organized in 1878, after the dissolution of the McGregor Band. It consisted originally of Mr. Walter, the two sons John and Will, and the three younger daughters, the youngest being just ten years old. Gradually local musicians joined the organization, and tho' the personnel of the Band changed somewhat from time to time, the nucleus remained the same for many years, and all bore equal love for their leader. It was a group of the "Band Boys" who finally bore him to rest, performing with loving hearts this last service for dear "Vater Walter."

During its existence this Band was in great demand all round the countryside and soon gained a more than local reputation. Its services were gratuitously given for any number of local charitable and social enterprises, its leader even offering his services and disclaiming with his simple shyness any expression of thanks.

Through his music, perhaps, the community felt their strongest claim upon Mr. Walter. There are many people with a certain popular love of melody, or love of popular melody who call themselves, or are called, musicians. But how different that quality of musical interest which comes from a deep psychological and intellectual conception of the scope and possibility of that world of Harmony and Musical Sound to which only the chosen few can by nature be admitted. To this Realm we do not think we exaggerate in saying Mr. Walter had a key, and wandered there more freely and intelligently than any one who has lived amongst us. His great talent he passed to his children in no mean measure, and through them we continue to enjoy the benefits of the Father's gift.

As a citizen, Mr. Walter was always eager for the good of the community. A staunch Democrat, he disliked the turmoil and unpleasantness of politics, and shrank from public office. He served on the school board for some time, and was also one of the stockholders and directors of the McGregor Cemetery Association.

Anything he had was at the public service, and there may be those who can remember the little old fashioned fire engine, the private property of the firm, which, in lieu of a public engine of practical size and power, so often served in a public capacity.

That in his family relations, he was most kind and thoughtful is apparent to the most casual observer on account of the great respect and devotion of all his large family. A reunion held a year ago to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary brought all the children home, except the son Will whose profession made it impossible for him to leave. The memory of this reunion will be a precious one, and it was an occasion of great pride and joy to the venerable head of the family.

Tho' the sickness which brought about the separation did not fully develop until this spring, those near to Mr. Walter have felt that he has realized for even a longer time that the end was near. In his gentle way he seems to have tried to prepare his wife for it, and his mind may have dwelt upon it more than his natural cheerfulness would allow him to show. The devotion of his wife and her unremitting care during these last six months is almost incredible when one realizes her own increasing years. Sons and daughters united to help her and nothing was left undone which could have added to his peace or comfort. Alarming dropsical tendencies developed and the sickness which had at first seemed merely a failing of strength that might be overcome, conquered at last, and a peaceful end was reached near six o'clock on Tuesday evening November 20th, 1906.

Every child was here to pay last respects to this justly honored parent, and to help support the widow in her grief. After a short prayer-service held for the family in the home, Mr. Walter was carried for the last time into the little church he loved so dearly, and Reverend Laube a professor in the Dubuque Theological Seminary preached a short sermon in the Mother tongue, and gave a short sketch of the life of Mr. Walter, adding a few words in English. The service was characterized by a simple dignity and impressiveness, and by a note of cheerful appeal for the faith of the father to uplift the children which could not possibly have been more appropriate. The little church was far too small to hold the number of friends and neighbors who came from far and near to pay their last duties. Beautiful flowers were there in abundance and bore testimony by their beauty and the tender sympathies they represented to the thoughtfulness of friends.

Mr. Walter's favorite hymn "Ringe recht, Prunkt" was sung by Mrs. Geo. Wood and Mr. Jacob Kramer, Sr. and finally the suffering body was laid peacefully to rest in the bosom of Mother Earth while with the first snow-storm of the year. In just such fashion, five years ago, did she receive the brother with whom to-day there has been a reunion.

Mr. Walter had that wonderful quality to some extent a peculiar one of the German citizen of uniting a deep love of vaterland with the most loyal if unostentatious patriotism. We might spend much time in enumerating his good qualities but after all simplicity was the keynote of his character, and we say it all when we repeat the words which passed from lip to lip at news of his death, "He was a good man."

Mr. Peter Walter Answers Final Summons

A long illness and reports of increasing weakness had to some extent prepared us for the sad news which we received Tuesday evening, November 23rd of the death of Peter Walter. Though we realized that to him the end meant a release from suffering: and, in his simple christian faith, a blessed release: we also realized how great was the loss, not only to the family who loved and honored him so deservedly, but to all of us who had known him as the most public spirited of citizens. The most sincere and earnest of christians, the sweetest of musicians, and the kindest and most loyal of friend.

Any community which has outlived the crudeness of early origin, and became a more or less social organism, is indelibly impressed with the character of those who were a part of it in its early days. To none of the men of sturdy parentage, earnest endeavor and high character, who came to McGregor in those "early days" are we more indebted than to Mr. Walter. Here he spend the greater part of his life, here his best work was done. His talents, which were considerable, were devoted largely to local enterprises and we have been the ones to receive the benefits of these good qualities and to profit by the example he set in always doing, quite simply, that thing which was the right, the kindly or the neighborly thing to do.

Peter Walter, born in Stochenhelm in the Grand Duchy of Baden, July 18th 1833, came with parents, brothers and sisters to America in February, 1847. The family settled in Sandusky, Ohio, the parents dying two years later. In the early '50's he and his brother Hans came to Dubuque, and Peter was then married in 1855 to Fraulein Marie Reiss. In 1856 the two brothers bro't their families to McGregor where in partnership with his brother Hans, Mr. Walter established the furniture and undertaking business which under the name of "Walter Brothers" has transacted business for fifty years in the one place. Until the death of Hans in November 1901, these two brothers were never separated occupying with their families, different sides of the same house. The death of his brother was a great shock to Mr. Walter, and he may be said to have never fully recovered from it.

With the exception of one three weeks old infant, the second child, the father's death is the first break in a family circle composed of parents and seven children. These children are Mrs. Otilia Pitts of Platteville, Wisconsin, Mrs. Matilda Helberg of Anamosa, Dr. John of McGregor, Mrs. Emma Benjamin of McGregor, Mrs. Anna Van Duzer of Rock Island, Illinois, William of McGregor and Mrs. Johanna Skemp of Dubuque. He leaves also to mourn him and to revere his memory, sixteen grand children, a great grand child and a brother, Michael, in Bucyrus, Ohio.

The little German Presbyterian church on the hill probably owes its very existence to Mr. Walter. He was a devout man, and a lover of his chosen creed, tho never intolerant of any one else's. In early days, at the end of the week, there used to be a great brushing and cleaning up in the back of Walter Bros. shop, which on Sunday served as a place of worship. Here a German minister preached in the dear mother-tongue to as devout and sincere a little congregation as has ever gathered in the town. Stately German chorals, sung by deep and musical German voices from loyal simple German hearts set up a note of praise and prayer which must have rec'd gracious attention at that throne of grace which desires sincerity above all else. Finally the little church was built and regular worship was established. Here Mr. Walter worshipped with great gratification and raised his children, truly, in the nature and admonition of the Lord. He has filled at one time or another almost all the offices of the church, serving as elder, Sunday school teacher and superintendent: as musical director of course. We are glad that we have worshipped there with him, and leave in our mind the picture of the venerable figure sitting by the window in the quaint and narrow pew: we are glad to have in our ears the sound of his fine old bass voice singing with it's author's very spirit Luther's hymn "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott." That memory fills us with reverence and reminds us to heed the warning:

"Despise not thou thy father's
. . . creed: Of his pure life
it was the golden thread: Whereon bright days were gathered head by head: "Til death laid low that dear and reverend . . ."

Following, 'The Walter Family Band' was written for the 'I Remember column by Mrs. W. A. Meyers of McGregor. A capable historian and a clever jurnalist, Mrs. Myers' stories relative to the early history of this region are ever enjoyed by readers of the column.

THE WALTER FAMILY BAND

By Lena Meyers

In response to requests from members of the Historical Society, Mrs. Emma Walter Benjamin of Cincinnati, Ohio, has sent a most interesting account of that famous McGregor organization, 'The Walter Family Band.' The following account has been taken from Mrs. Benjamin's letters and from various clippings from newspaper articles.

'In the early days of McGregor, Peter and John Walter established a furniture factory and paintshop. This was in 1857. The two families lived in apartments over the factory. Peter's family consisted of his wife and seven children, Tillie, Mattie, Johnnie, Emma, Anna, Willie, and Hannah. He was a talented musician and this talent he passed on to his children in no mean measure. Peter Walter possessed a fine bass voice and as soon as his children were old enough he taught them to sing. Tillie, Mattie, and Johnnie, with himself, formed a family quartette. Tillie had an exceptionally fine alto voice. She was married when quite young to Henry Pitts of Platteville, Wisconsin, so Emma was trained to take her place in the quartette. Mattie's marriage to Henry Hellberg followed soon after, thus puting an end to this family group.

Peter and his son, John, became interested in band music and joined the 'Old McGregor Band'. After the dissolution of this band, Peter Walter organized, managed, and directed a band consisting of the members of his own family. This was in 1878 and was the beginning of this famous institution which lasted nearly a quarter of a century.' At the time of the organization of this musical group, it consisted of the father, Peter Walter, and five of his children ranging in ages from six to fourteen years. Johnnie, (Dr. John A. Walter) was 14; Emma, (Mrs. D. G. Benjamin) 12; Anna, Mrs. H. E. Van Duzen) 10; Willie, 8; and Hannah, (Mrs. C. P. Skemp) 6. Each was taught to play a band instrument. The old carpenter shop of the factory was converted into a band room and here, every night of the week, except Saturday and Sunday nights), after the evening meal, the band gathered for rehearsal. This routine was kept up for many years, or as long as the band was in existence. Gradually, local musicians joined the organization and although the personnel changed from time to time,

The band made a hit and played with their show at a few more Wisconsin towns. Al Ringling offered Peter Walter a partnership in the circus, but Mr. Walter decided in favor of his business and home in McGregor. Mrs. Benjamin says that 'the band was a sensation from the start, largely because of the three girls. Not only did they play horns—men's instruments—but they marched in parades, both unheard of things for the female sex to do in those days. At the Minnesota State Fair in the early '80's, the curious crowds pressed around them so closely they had to have police protection. The storm center of attraction was little Hanna playing a large bass horn.' Dr. Walter in telling about this, once said they had to tie a rope around her and her horn to help her hold it. The Walter Family Band was known in all cities and towns on the Mississippi river from St. Louis to St. Paul, as during the summer seasons for a number of years, the band played on the Diamond Jo line of steamers that plied the Mississippi River—for several years they played at the great carnival festival, 'The Veiled Prophet', in St. Louis.

Mrs. Benjamin tells an amusing story of stunts the band used during their concerts. 'One specialty', she wrote, was a roller-skating act introduced at the height of the roller skating craze. The band would take the floor and play while skating. The young folks were pretty good skaters, but Father Walter never could learn. He wouldn't give up, but kept on trying to skate, his awkward efforts making the crowds roar, as they believed he was clowning.' The band broke up in 1892, as the girls were now married and most of them gone from McGregor. Dr. John A. Walter kept up his music actively leading the McGregor band for many years, as well as doing solo work for all kinds of entertainments. Mrs. Benjamin also took an important part in McGregor's music, for many years being director of the Congregational Church choir and in singing for church, club and schoo affairs. The member of the Walte Family Band who made music hi life's work and who became nation ally famous was William, the next t the youngest of the seven children He appeared with the family ban at the age of eight, but his first ap pearance as a soloist was when, a the same age, he played an alto hor in a parlor concert in the home o the Honorable W. J. Gilchrist. Hi first teacher, of course, was his tal ented father, but later, he was pupil of the famous cornet soloist Liberati, of New York City. Wil Walter's first engagement in hi musical career outside of McGrego was with the Ransome Dramati Company. Then, in turn, he wa with Beach and Bowers Minstrels Wallace Circus, and with Ringlin Brothers' Circus as soloist with thei band. When vaudeville was in vogue he was with the 'Howe, Wall, an Walter-Musical Act', a very popula number on the Keith Circuit. Late he was associated with the Primros and West Minstrels. For fifteen years before his death, he was with the Al G. Fields Greater Minstrels as band-master and director o music. It was during this perio that he toured the United States playing in all the important cities and gained fame as a solo cornetist. Fields featured the band as 'Billy Walter's Gold Band' for it's sixty members all used gold instruments.

Mrs. Banjamin mentioned only two local musicians who were members of the Walter Family Band—Frank Clemens and August Kranert. However, in an interview with Mr. Kranert, several other names were added to this list. Mac Bromley played the snare drum, Ray Gilchrist the tenor horn, Gill Church the cornet, while Mr. Kranert played the bass drum. These four young men were with the band for several years. Mr. Kranert stated that. Ed. Herron played the cornet a short time and Oscar Bielow from Bridgeport was with them awhile, playing the clarinet.

Dr. John A. Walter preserved his father's large collection of band and orchestra music and added to it through his long life time. A large cabinet was filled with music which covered a period of about seventy years and was worth several thousand dollars. There were compositions now out of print, there were first editions of Sousa's marches, arrangements for bands, orchestras, small groups and solo works. Dr. Walter, as his father before him, added much to the musical life of McGregor. After his death in 1942, one of the Swiss bells used in the band was given to the McGregor Historical Museum, also a large picture of Will Walter in one of his vaudeville acts.

WALTER AND BRO. — MANUFACTURERS OF FURNITURE AND COFFINS

By Emma Walter Benjamin

Peter and John Walter, born in Hoikenheim, Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, came with their parents, sister, and two brothers, to America, in 1847. The family settled in Sandusky, Ohio, where Peter and John Walter took out their citizenship papers October 31st, 1854. In the early '50's, Peter and John decided to go west, locating in Dubuque, Iowa.

It was in February, 1856, that they brought their families to McGregor, Iowa, and formed a partnership as painters and decorators. In the same year they engaged in the manufacture of furniture and coffins, establishing the wholesale and retail furniture and undertaking business which, under the name of Walter and Bro. transacted business for nearly fifty years in the one place. (The Walter and Bro. building stood on the site of the present home of Arthur Hinsch.) All the furniture and coffins were made of solid walnut, the walnut trees from the native woods providing the material. Some of the furniture is still in existence and in good condition. Peter was the business manager of the firm. He was a licensed embalmer, and had charge of the undertaking department. John, familiarly known as 'Hans', an expert painter and decorator, was manager of the paint shop.

In 1877, Peter went to Philadelphia, Pa., and purchased a hearse of which there were very few in the middle west. Until the death of John, these two brothers were never separated. The two families lived in apartments over the factory. The large walnut bedstead extending over the sidewalk from the retail department as a sign of their business, was a landmark.

As citizens, Walter and Bro. were always working for the good of the community. Anything they had was at the public service. The Walter well supplied not only all the neighborhood families with drinking water, but also the pupils of the public school. In lieu of a public engine of practicable size and power, the little old-fashioned fire engine, the private property of the firm, served many times in public capacity. Peter was a member of the school board for some time. While thus serving he was instrumental in having the German branch introduced into the curriculum. He was a charter member of the McGregor Cemetery Association, now Pleasant Grove Cemetery. While in Sandusky, Ohio, he was an active member of the Sandusky MenerChor, a fine men's musical organization, and a member of the Sandusky Gun Club. He was a charter member of the McGregor Musical Society, and was the organizer and director of the well known Walter Family Band. Through his music, perhaps, the community felt their strongest claim upon Peter Walter. The brothers were staunch Democrats. They disliked the trouble and unpleasantness of politics and shrank from public office. They were the founders of the little German Presbyterian Church.

OBITUARY.

(Plattsville, Wis., Journal.)

Tillie Walter, daughter of Peter and Marie Walter, was born in Dubuque, Iowa, April 6, 1856, and died January 31, 1920, at the home of her daughter, Mrs A. Hall, of Omaha, Nebraska.

Her childhood was spent in McGregor, Iowa, where she received home and church training that prepared her for a beautiful and useful life.

She was married to Henry Pitts, of Plattville, Wis., September, 1875, at Napoleon, Ohio. To this union was born seven children: William P., Walter H., Harry A., Ben J., Chauncey R., Myrtle and Gladys M. Her husband preceded her to the life beyond and she took the life work of rearing her family as a sacred duty and privilege.

She was reared in the faith of the Presbyterian church and was always an active member of its various organizations

She was a charter member of the Royal Neighbor Lodge of Plattville.

She is survived by four sons: Walter H., Harry A, Ben J. and Chauncey R., all of Kenosha, Wis.; one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hall of Omaha, Neb.,; five grandchildren; an aged mother; two brothers, Dr. J. A. Walter and William N Walter both of McGregor; and three sisters, Mrs. Harry E Vanduser of Rock Island, Mrs. D. J. Benjamin of McGregor and Mrs, Chas. P. Skemp of Dubuque.

A life well lived, a life well-spent—always for others, never for self. She was never too busy to help others. There are many who can say "she came to us in our hour of need." She leaves an innumerable host of grateful friends—many a life she has made a little brighter, many a burden a little lighter.

Funernal services were held at the First Presbyterian church at Plattville, conducted by a friend of the family, Rev. Laube of Dubuque. The body was placed in the receiving vault at Greenwood cemetery.

Hi Helen -

I'm now learning how to use the scanner and how to send email pictures of the scanned object.. So enclosed is a "casual" picture of me and my husband, Gene. I put a "frame" around the picture to jazz it up a little.

I'm looking forward to seeing you some day! Can you send a snapshot in an email?

RESIDENCE--MAYOR WALTER.

McGregor Dentists, Father And Son, Have Identical Records As Leaders In Public Life

Both Have Served As Mayor, Headed Iowa League Of Municipalities.

By STAFF REPORTER.

MCGREGOR — Partners in private, public and business life—that is the story of Dr. John A. Walter, the father, and Dr. J. Frederick Walter, the son, well known McGregor dentists.

Mayor of McGregor, president of the Iowa League of Municipalities, president of dental societies and leader in many civic enterprises—both have held these honors. The son had merely to follow in the footsteps of the father.

Dr. John, aside from being McGregor's veteran dentist, still is a musician of exceptional ability. Now 77, he plays a cornet with the agility and brilliant tone quality of an expert half his age, and this despite a handicap which has forced many a world-famed musician into retirement — the loss of his natural teeth.

He was a member of the famous Walter family band which, in the 1880's, played on the Mississippi river packet, Josephine, plying between Davenport and Dubuque and later played on various excursion boats. In 1884, when his dental office was "burned out" in a disastrous fire, Dr. John merely doffed his white coat and assumed a musician's uniform on the Josephine.

Likes To Play Duets.

His favorite recreation today is to get together with a good trombone player, run through his copious music library, pick out a dozen favorite duets, and while the evening away. Hitting high C and holding it for five measures is still part of his repertoire.

Dr. John says that he played in his first parade July 4, 1876, and is still playing. He admits that it's "some record."

It was during this period that Dr. John and the rest of the Walter family band played at a vacant lot tent-show given by the Ringling boys, later to be famed as the greatest circus men of all time. The Ringlings lived and conducted a harness shop across the street from Dr. John's present home.

Born in McGregor Jan. 9, 1861, Dr. John began his apprenticeship in dentistry (which was the usual way to learn the profession in those days) under Dr. A. O. Hunt of McGregor, who later became dean of the University of Iowa dental department. In his office today he keeps those earliest tools—hand drills, for example, rotated with the fingers, and which derived their pressure from the palm of the hand. Later came the old foot-pedal powered drill. These he keeps in the back room of his modern suite of offices.

Many Years As Mayor.

Dr. John was a founder of the old Northern Iowa Dental society, and in 1901 was elected president of the Iowa State Dental association.

He served as mayor of McGregor from 1897 to 1911, when he voluntarily retired. He was one of the founders and organizers of the Iowa League of Municipalities in 1898, and was elected president in 1902, later serving on the executive committee until 1911, when he retired from office. In 1920 he was elected president of the McGregor Commercial club and in the following year was again elected mayor, serving until 1927, when he again voluntarily retired.

His son, Dr. Frederick, took up the torch from his father. Born in 1893, he was graduated from the dental department of the University of Iowa in 1918 with the degree of doctor of dental surgery, served as a demonstrator in the department for two years, served as a member of the medical reserve corps during the World war, and in the spring of 1919 located in McGregor with his distinguished father.

Following in the parental footsteps, he was elected president of the Dubuque district Dental society, and became mayor of McGregor in 1929—a position which he has since held.

"McGregor knows a good thing when it sees it," an officer of the Iowa Dental society commented on McGregor's insistence on the Walters' civic service.

The presidency of the Iowa League of Municipalities, now held by Dr. Frederick, is the achievement which ties the score between the father and son. Now Dr. John leads only in musical ability and the number of years of service he rendered to Iowa citizens.

Playmate Of Ringlings Keeps Up Cornet Practice 65 Years

By FLORENCE L. CLARK.

MCGREGOR — Every evening now, the same as he has with rare exceptions ever since he was 12, Dr. John Walter, 79, plays the cornet. It may be a classical piece, it may be a song or waltz of 50 years ago, or it may be a modern selection, depending on his mood.

He does his practicing in a room in his home which he has turned into a music museum. A large cabinet holds a library of band, orchestra, trio, duet, and solo music accumulated over nearly 70 years, and at a cost of several thousand dollars. There are first editions of Sousa's marches, and rare compositions once popular but now practically unknown and out of print.

Numerous old band instruments are on display—one an 80-year-old shoulder cornet with rotary valves. A table is covered with traps devised and used in a day when few bands in the middle west had them. The collection includes Swiss bells, anvil, steamboat whistle and a variety of bird songs. The museum walls are decorated with 50-year-old pictures of the Walter Family band, posters of Al G. Fields Gold band, celebrated organization of the Nineties, with Dr. Walter's brother, Will, wielding the baton—and one of Will with newspaper notice of his national fame as a cornetist. There are pictures also of the Ringling Brothers at various stages of their rise to circus fame.

Ringling Bros. Playmates.

Dr. Walter's house stands where August Ringling, father of the circus men, had a harness shop in the Seventies. Across the street, in buildings long since torn down, the Walters and Ringlings lived as neighbors and the children of the two families played together. Al Ringling and John were pals. In summers they used to work together in a garden. Al had an old white horse which was supposed to be a help in the garden, but more often than not Al was practicing fancy bareback riding while John did the hoeing.

When the Ringlings first took to the road with a small wagon show they had the Walter Family band play for them at Prairie du Chien, and other Wisconsin and Iowa towns.

Turned Down Circus Interest.

The band made a hit, and the families were such good friends that Al Ringling asked Peter Walter, John's father, to take a partnership in the circus, but Father Walter decided his McGregor business had a much better outlook for the future, and politely declined.

Dr. Walter has practiced dentistry in McGregor 59 years, and still goes to his office daily. He was the town's mayor 20 years, has been president of the League of Iowa Municipalities, and president of the Northeastern Iowa Dental association, but it is of the Walter Family band that he loves best to talk as he nears his eightieth birthday.

His father in early days had a furniture factory and paint shop in McGregor. The bedstead hanging out in front for a sign was a landmark. The family lived over the factory.

Peter Walter, as soon as his five sons and daughters were old enough, taught each of them to play a band instrument. John being the oldest was the first pupil. When he was 14 he made his first appearance in public, playing a cornet in the McGregor band as it marched up Main street in a Fourth of July celebration. Absorbed in his playing and with eyes glued to his music, the boy heard with pride the sidewalk crowds cheering. Then he looked up and saw that he had fallen far behind the band, which was the real reason for the cheers.

Band Is Immediate Success.

It was two years later in 1877, when the youngest daughter, Hannah, was seven, that the Walter Family band emerged full-fledged. In the organization were Father Walter, John, Emma, Anna, Will, and Hannah. They had practiced every evening except Sundays for years, and were to continue doing so for 25 years more.

The band was a sensation from the start, because of the three girls. Not only did they play horns—men's instruments—but marched in parades—both unheard of things for the female sex in those days. At the Minnesota state fair in the early Eighties, the curious crowds pressed around them so they had to have police protection. Little Hannah, playing a base horn, was the storm center, Dr. Walter laughingly recalls.

For a number of years the band played on the Diamond Jo packets on the Mississippi river for the summer tourist trade. It was an innovation in steamboating and widely advertised. The program was to play at every landing, and to blare forth loudly whenever they passed a steamer of rival companies without bands. A concert was given in the salon in the evening. Sometimes they played for dancing. "But there wasn't much dancing on the old packets," Dr. Walter said.

"Gambling was the sport. Father used to take a hand in it sometimes. He was an expert euchre player, and could hold his own at the gaming tables even with the professional gamblers."

Several seasons the band played in St. Louis during the Veiled Prophet fiesta.

Skating For Floor Show.

"Floor shows" are considered quite a modern feature, but a half a century ago the Walters were doing stunts in concert work. A specialty was their roller skating act. They would take to the floor, and play and skate.

"We young folks were pretty good skaters—Emma really quite fancy," Dr. Walter said, "but father never could learn. He wouldn't give up though, and always insisted on skating with us. He never fell, but he was so awkward and funny, the crowds used to roar. They believed he was clowning. A circus company and a New York vaudeville show both made him flattering offers to put our act on in the east, but again, as with the Ringlings, he voted to stay by McGregor, and keep us together as the 'Walter Family band.'"

It was after Will had left and become famous, and the daughters had married, that nightly rehearsals in the old home ended. The band broke up in 1902.

CA 1940

Dr. J. A. Walter who has a summer cottage on Bergman Island found his boat sunk in the water last week. An investigation revealed the fact that a family of muskrats had built a house inside of it and the weight of the material was sufficient to sink the boat.

OBITUARY

NIT—— 6-30-27

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. J. A. Walter came as a shock to relatives and friends last Friday morning.

Odilda Emelia Bergman was born in McGregor, Iowa, September 17, 1865, and passed into eternal rest Friday morning, June 24, 1927. She grew to womanhood in her native town. She was reared in the faith of the Presbyterian church, and was always an active member of its various organizations. When the Presbyterian church disbanded, she affiliated with the First Congregational Church. She belonged to various social and fraternal organizations, and was a prominent member of Pleasant Grove Cemetery Association.

She was married to Dr. John A. Walter, November 18, 1885. To this union were born four daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Nelson, and Mrs. Marie Kean, of McGregor; Mrs. Odilda Lager, New Hampton, Iowa; Mrs. Helen Wenzel, West Allis, Wis., and two sons, Dr. J. Fredric Walter, and William B. Walter, McGregor, Iowa, all of whom are left with the husband, to mourn. She is also survived by three grandchildren, two sisters and three brothers. She was a devoted and loving mother, and a faithful wife. In her daily life, she was ambitious, industrious and conscientious; her greatest joy, was to serve her own family—whom she dearly loved. She freely gave her service in church and social work, was ever ready with words of kindness and the prompting of a generous nature to help the [illegible] and needy, and was gifted with a cheerful disposition and an attractive manner which won her many warm friends who will greatly miss her from their circle.

One of the largest gatherings of relatives and friends from near and far, that McGregor has seen in many years assembled at the home Sunday afternoon, where the funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. Franklin Parsons, of the First Congregational church. The profuse floral offerings, from both at home and abroad betokened the love and esteem in which she was held. Interment was made in Pleasant Grove Cemetery.

Dr. J. A. Walter, ex-mayor of McGregor, well-known musician and dean of Iowa dentists, died early Monday morning, after only a few hours illness. He was taken to the hospital late Sunday night, following a heart attack. He was 81 years old.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kean, in McGregor. Services at the house were conducted by the Rev. J. J. Horsfield, pastor of St. Mary's church, and graveside services by the Rev. Dwight E. Webster, pastor of the Methodist church. McGregor stores and business places were closed during the services in respect to the former mayor.

Dr. Walter's parents were born in Germany and came to McGregor in 1857. His father engaged in the furniture and undertaking business here in partnership with his brother, and being a musician, organized and taught the "Walter Family Band", in which Dr. John and his four sisters and brother played. The band was well-known and played for a number of seasons on the Diamond Jo packets on the Mississippi river.

His interest in band work never lagged and he still occasionally played his cornet.

Dr. Walter was born in McGregor on January 9, 1861. After graduating from the town school, he procured a dental apprenticeship with Dr. A. O. Hunt, then practicing in McGregor, and later the distinguished dean of the College of Dentistry of the State University. At that time apprenticeship to another dentist was the only way a young man could gain knowledge of the profession.

Following two years as an apprentice, Dr. Walter in 1881 opened a dental office in McGregor, and continued in active practice here nearly 60 years.

An early proponent of organized Dentistry, Dr. Walter was one of the founders of the Northern Iowa Dental society, and in 1902 was president of the Society.

He was elected mayor of McGregor in 1897, and served in that capacity 21 years. He was one of the organizers of the League of Iowa Municipalities in 1898, and was elected president of the organization in 1899. For a number of years afterwards he served on the executive committee.

He was once a member of the Dubuque lodge of Elks, the McGregor lodges of Masons, the I. O. O. F., including the uniformed rank in which he held the rank of major. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, M. W. A., W. O. W., Yeoman and M. B. A.

Dr. Walter married Miss Odilda E. Bergman November 18, 1885, in McGregor and four girls and two boys were born to them. Mrs. Walter died 15 years ago. The children are all living. The oldest son, Frederick, following in his father's footsteps, has been a dentist in McGregor since 1919, mayor of the town since 1929, and president of the League of Iowa Municipalities. The other son, William, and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kean, live in McGregor. The three other daughters are: Mrs. Carl Nelson, Fort Dodge; Mrs. Vincent Lager, Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. Harry Wenzel, West Allis, Wis. Four sisters of Dr. Walter survive him; Mrs. Emma Benjamin, Cincinnati; Mrs. Mattie Hellberg, Minneapolis; Mrs. Anna Van Duzer, Chicago; and Mrs. Hannah Skemp, Dubuque.

PUBLICITY

Mayor Walter, the dentist, says S. J. Peterson, the druggist told him that he heard H. J. Goddard, the Grocer, say, when he was buying a pair of D. G. Benjamin's Good Shoes, that E. F. Kurzrock, who deals in fine groceries, heard that there was no doubt that W. F. Kramer, the Clothier, said that W. T. Geise, the Barber, thought W. F. Daubenberger, the Clothing Man, had told, in Gil Church's confectionery store, that G. A. Cox, the Drayman, had declared when passing Bergman Bros., Meat Market, that August Kranert, whose shoe business is conducted on the "Quality Counts-We-Win" plan believed that one of the hardware dealers, O. A. Sloane & Son, had remarked in the hearing of several clerks in A. Clemens & Co.'s Dry Goods store, that Fred Heberlein, the meat market proprietor, said that he heard Joe Matt, the Liveryman, say that in the Pocket City Hotel, he had caught C. H. Frese (of the Jewelry firm G. H. F. & Bro.) saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact, of great public interest, and he heard it in the First National Bank, that A. Chapin, the Lawyer, heard F. A. Griswold, the Glassware Dealer, say over the Standard Phone, that he heard U. S. Walker, who represents the pioneer insurance firm of C. W. W. A (Bill) Kean Funeral Tomorrow

Elkader

W. A. Kean, former McGregor business man, died Tuesday morning in a hospital in Madison, Wis. He had been hospitalized since [illegible] injuries received in a fall in a drug store where he was employed.

Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's church here on Friday at 10 a. m. The body arrived here last night and is at the Pilkington funeral home.

William A Kean

Services for William A. Kean, 67, were Friday morning at St.Mary's church here. Burial was in Pleasant Grove cemetery.

Mr. Kean was a drug merchant at McGregor for many years. In 1943 the Keans moved to Madison Wis. where he was employed by a drug company. He had been hospitalized since May due to injuries received in a fall in the company store. He died there Tuesday morning.

Born in Allamakee county, the son of Mr. & Mrs. Andrew Kean, he married Marie Walter April 18, 1927. Survivors are his wife, one son, William and two sisters, Mrs. son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kean, C. Entwisle of Napa, Calif.

Montezuma Club on Tour

Thirty-two women of the Montezuma See-Iowa club arrived in McGregor chartered bus last Wednesday afternoon. Enroute they stopped to see the clocks at Spillville and the Wonder cave at Decorah. Here they visited the parks and points of interest, had dinner at the Heights hotel where W. J. Kennedy, superintendent of the Effigy mounds monument, gave an illustrated lecture for the group. They spent the night on the Heights.

Thursday they went to Prairie du Chien, Wis., to see Villa Louis and then on to the Trappist monastery at New Mellary, Iowa.

A. Marie Kean

McGREGOR, Iowa — Services for A. Marie Kean, 100, of McGregor will be at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at First Congregational Church, McGregor.

Burial will be in Pleasant Grove Cemetery, McGregor. Friends may call from 6 to 8 p.m. today at Thornburg Funeral Home, McGregor, and after 12:30 p.m. Thursday at the church.

Mrs. Kean was a homemaker.

She was born Aug. 23, 1888, in McGregor, daughter of Dr. John and Ottilie (Bergman) Walter. She died Monday night, May 22, 1989, at Great River Care Center, McGregor.

She married William Kean April 28, 1927, in McGregor; he died in 1951.

She was a lifelong resident of McGregor.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and a lifelong member of First Congregational Church.

Surviving are a son, William of Suring, Wis.; one grandson; and a sister, Mrs. Helen Wenzel of Milwaukee.

D. G. Benjamin, for many years a leading citizen of McGregor, died at his home here early yesterday morning. He had been ill for six weeks.

Known all over Northeastern Iowa because of his Woodmen Accident agency, "Dayt" will be mourned by hundreds of friends in this section. His sleights of hand performances made him many an acquaintance over the territory. For years he was in business in McGregor, selling shoes.

Funeral services will be held from the Benjamin home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

D. G. BENJAMIN

Dayton Gilchrist Benjamin was born November 16, 1860, at Rockford, Illinois, the son of Ira Benjamin and Julia (Gilchrist) Benjamin. He was a graduate of the McGregor High School, being a member of the class of 1880. After his graduation he was, for a short time in the employ of the Michigan Central R. R. company, Chicago Illinois. He returned to McGregor, Iowa, where for many years, he was engaged in the exclusive shoe business. Later he became associated with the Woodman Accident Company, Lincoln Nebraska, as district agent.

He was married to Emma Katherine Walter May 6, 1891. Three children, two sons and one daughter, were born to them, the two sons having passed away in infancy. He is survived by his widow, and his daughter, Kathryn Robertson, his son-in-law, James Robertson, and two grandchildren, Bob and Katy Robertson.

He passed away after an illness of six weeks on May 30, 1934.

His funeral, which was attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends, was held at his late residence Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. Franklin Parsons of the First Congregational church, McGregor, Iowa, officiating. Burial was in Pleasant Grove cemetery.

Out of town relatives who attended the services were: Mrs. H. E. Van Duzen, Rock Island, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Skemp, Mrs. John Hedley, Dubuque.

"D. G." was one of the most popular salesmen in Clayton county, and was known to old and young all over the district. His characteristics were such as endeared him to the fellowship of his friends.

Mrs. D. G. Benjamin Dies At Cincinnati

Mrs. Emma Benjamin, 91, for many years a resident of McGregor, died Sunday at Cincinnati, Ohio, where she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. James Robertson, for about the past twenty years. She had broken her leg earlier this month, according to word received by relatives and friends.

The body arrived last night and funeral services will be held here today at 2:30 p. m. in the Congregational church. She was formerly a choir director and Sunday School superintendent in that church for many years.

She was the widow of the late Dayton G. Benjamin, a former McGregor businessman, and after his death she made her home with her daughter.

Surviving besides her daughter are two grandchildren, some great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Hannah Skemp, of Dubuque.

McGregor

BENJAMIN—Emma (nee Walter), widow of Dayton G. Benjamin, beloved mother of Mrs. Kathryn Robertson, Sunday, July 25, 1954; residence, 8078 Colerain Ave., in her 92nd year. Friends may call at the Chas. A. Miller Sons Funeral Home, Hamilton Ave. at Knowlton St., Northside, Tuesday after 4 p. m. Funeral services Tuesday at 8 p. m. Interment at McGregor, Iowa.

LEADING SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER CALLED TO REST

Harry E. VanDuzer Dies After Making Brave Fight During Last Year for Life.

UNDER KNIFE FOUR TIMES

As Salesman, Teacher and Churchman He Was Widely Known and Generally Beloved.

Harry Ellsworth VanDuzer, teacher, salesman, Sunday school and church worker, died at 9:10 last evening at his home in the Payne flats, corner of Sixth avenue and Twentieth street. He had made a brave fight for life against an organic trouble which had afflicted him for nearly a year and which had necessitated four major operations in that period. After one of these he almost succumbed, being kept alive for hours by artificial respiration. Yet he fought his way back to comparative health and after a few months resumed his work.

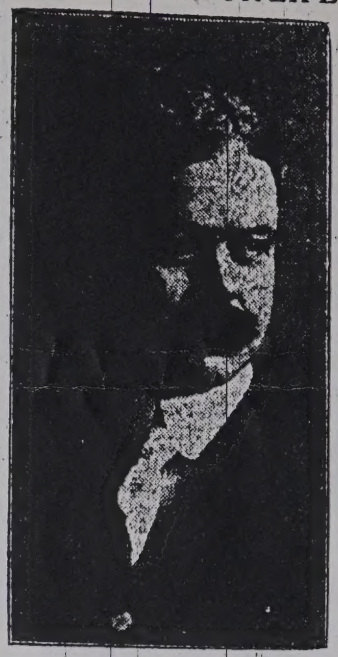
The first operation took place July 17 last, being performed, as were all the later ones, at the Mayo Brothers' establishment at Rochester, Minn. It was after the third ordeal, Aug. 17, that his life was despaired of for some time. After recovering his strength he again took up the teaching of salesmanship, which engaged his attention in later years. Jan. 24, however, he found it necessary to return to Rochester for a fourth operation and since that time he had gradually failed.

Born in Le Claire.

Mr. VanDuzer was born Aug. 1, 1861, at LeClaire, Iowa, the son of Rev. Jacob and Mary Schomo VanDuzer. He attended the public schools of that village and while still a mere boy began work as clerk on river boats. When old enough he took up school teaching in order to secure funds to get a higher education. After working for four or five years he attended Northwestern normal at Genesco, from which he graduated. Then he took a teacher's course at the Northern Indiana normal at Valparaiso. Returning to this county he became principal of the Cordova schools, remaining there five years.

Jan. 28, 1891 Mr. VanDuzer came to Rock Island to become connected with Hartz & Bahnsen, wholesale druggists. At first he was an office man and later he became tri-city salesman. He remained with this firm 20 years, resigning to take up insurance work and the teaching of salesmanship. His lectures on the science of selling were in demand from the start. He spoke and conducted classes in several states, among them besides Illinois being Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Kansas. During his last illness he was asked to give a series of lectures at Detroit.

LOSES IN YEAR'S BATTLE FOR LIFE



Harry E. VanDuzer.

Active as Church Worker.

Mr. VanDuzer since coming to Rock Island had been a member of Broadway Presbyterian church and active in church councils. He served as elder for 12 years. He was also assistant superintendent and chorister of the Sunday school, and managed and taught the teachers' training class as long as one was maintained. For a number of years he served as president of the Rock Island Sunday school association, being brought into close association with church workers from all parts of the country.

Fraternally he was a member of Rock Island lodge No. 658, A. F. & A. M., St. Paul lodge, Knights of Pythias and camp 29, M. W. A. He held the respect and esteem of everybody who knew him and the range of his acquaintance went far beyond that of the average individual, his work as salesman, lecturer and Sunday school worker having brought him into personal contact with thousands who will be grieved to learn of his death.

Mr. VanDuzer was married Jan. 28, 1892, to Miss Anna Waters of McGregor, Iowa, who survives, with one daughter, Anna Marie. His father died in 1889 and his mother five years ago. A brother and sister have also preceded him to the grave. Of his immediate family only two half brothers survive. They are Will and Frank Long, both of LeClaire.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with services at Broadway Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. W. S. Marquis and interment at Chippiannock cemetery. Burial will be under Masonic auspices.

ROCK ISLAND ARGUS 13 May 1914

MRS. VAN DUZER DIES IN CHICAGO

Funeral Services for Former Resident to Be Held Tomorrow In Rock Island.

Mrs. Harrison Ellsworth VanDuzer, a resident of Rock Island until 1937, died yesterday in Chicago at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. LeBlount Gamble.

Mrs. VanDuzer, the former Miss Anna Barbara Walter, was born in McGregor, Iowa, Jan. 22, 1865. She was wed to Harrison Ellsworth VanDuzer Dec. 28, 1893, and he precede her in death. William N. Walter

FAMOUS CORNETIST DIES IN DUBUQUE

DIES IN DUBUQUE HOSPITAL AFTER LONG ILLNESS; AT AGE OF 56

William N. Walter was born in McGregor, Iowa, September 2, 1866, the son of Peter and Mary Walter who were among the earliest settlers here. He spent his boyhood days here and was educated in our Public School and attended the German Presbyterian Church. Early in life he had a natural inclination for music and under the excellent tutorage of his father, who was a skilled musician, he became a very efficient cornetist, and his first public appearance was with the famous Walter Family Band. His first engagement in his musical career, outside of McGregor, was with Ransom Dramatic Co., then with Beach & Bowers Minstrels, also Wallace Circus, then with the Ringling Brothers Circus, Primrose & Wests Minstrels, the Howe, Wall and Walter Vaudeville, and after that he was associated at different times with other vaudeville troupes.

The past fifteen years, up to the time of his retirement, he was Band Master and Director of Music in Al. G. Field's Greater Minstrels, and it was during this period that he toured over the entire United States, playing at all the important cities where he made a host of loyal friends and also gained renowned fame as a solist, cornetist, and a business cornetist. His musical features were so pronounced that his employer, Al. G. Fields, featured "[illegible] his Band" was known throughout the entire United States and he was recognized in the theatrical world as one of the best cornetists in this country.

In a fraternal way he was affiliated and a member of Bezer Lodge No. 135 A. F. & A. M., at McGregor; also a member of the Consistory at Clinton and amember of Dubuque Lodge of Elks No. 297. He was also a member of the Musician's Union at Chicago, later transferring to the Dubuque Union. He at all times took a great interest in his fraternal work and was loyal to all the organizations to which he belonged.

During recent years he spent his summer months here at McGregor with his mother and after the old homestead was sold, he built a cozy cottage on Bergman's Island, where he and his mother spent the summer months together enjoying the river and out-door life of which he was always so fond.

About four years ago his health began to fail and in April, 1922 he severed relations with Fields Minstrels and made arrangements to live in his cottage on the Island and hoped to regain his health. However, he failed rapidly and early last fall he returned to McGregor and made his home with his sister, Mrs. D. G. Benjamin, where he remained until January when he went to Dubuque and remained with his sister, Mrs. C. F. Skemp until the month of May when he entered a local hospital and was confined to his bed until he passed away Saturday evening, August 18, 1923; at the age of 56 years, 11 months and 16 days.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Walter at McGregor; four sisters, Mrs. D. G. Benjamin, of McGregor; Mrs. Mattie Hellberg, of Anamosa, Iowa; Mrs. C. F. Skemp of Dubuque, Iowa; Mrs. Anna Van Duzer, of Rock Island, Illinois, and one brother, Dr. J. A. Walter of McGregor. His father, Peter Walter of McGregor, and sister, Mrs. Till Pitts of Platteville, Wisconsin, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at Dubuque on August 20th, officiated by Dr. David DeForest Burrel, pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Skemp, 440 Burch St., and at McGregor on August 21st at the home of his brother, Dr. J. A. Walter, under the auspices of DeMolay Consistory Lodge of Clinton Iowa; and internment was made in Pleasant Grove Cemetery.

He was a man of excellent character, cheerful disposition, loved, honored, and respected by everyone who knew him, and during his last sickness he never complained, and was always cheerful and had a pleasant smile and kind word for everyone; was ever faithful to his friends and his profession and obtained a most prominent place as a musician in the theatrical world where his untimely death will be regretted by all who knew him.

DEATHS

In the Profession

BACHELDER—E. A., widely known theatrical publicity man, died suddenly September 6 at the Brooklyn Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., of heart disease. Mr. Bachelder was last employed as press representative for Mme. Nazimova and previously was on Edward Royce's staff. Some years ago he was in advance of several of Henry W. Savage's most important road productions. Mr. Bachelder went to the hospital several weeks ago suffering from a form of heart disease that specialists thought would respond to treatment. Beatrice Bachelder, his widow, is also a publicity agent.

BALLANTINE—W. E., 77, an original member of the Christy Minstrels of the old St. James Hall, Piccadilly, London, died August 18 in London. He retired from the company in 1874 and devoted his time to teaching the banjo, mandolin and guitar.

BARNICOAT—Betty (Mrs. Helen Nichols Nedell), a popular Boston actress, died suddenly in Los Angeles August 26. For a number of seasons Miss Barnicoat played leading roles with the John Craig Company at the old Castle Square Theater, Boston. Funeral services were conducted in Pine Grove Chapel, Lynn, Mass.

BITZER—John Carl, 40, chief cameraman for D. W. Griffith and the American Biograph Company, died September 6 at his home, 5111 Twentieth avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Bitzer filmed the pictures, "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance", and was a member of the Cinema Club and the Himalaya Club.

BOND—Cassius, 54, well-known musician and bandmaster, died suddenly at his home in Glens Falls, N. Y., August 30. Mr. Bond was the organizer of Bond's Military Band and was a member of the Masonic Band of Glens Falls. He was in business in Cobleskill, N. Y., for years, later moving to Glens Falls.

BRANSON—Doris, daughter of Doris Kelly, known in the profession, died at the Baptist Hospital, Houston, Tex., August 28, following a cephalic operation.

BURKE—Walter F., 49, died at his home in Chicago August 30 of plural pneumonia. Mr. Burke had been a member of the profession for the past twenty-five years. He was formerly of the team of Clifford and Burke, black-face comedians, a standard act in this country and abroad. Later he worked with his wife, the team being known as Walter Burke and Kitty Harrison. Mr. Burke retired from the stage six years ago and engaged in the real estate business, in which he was successful. His widow and a brother and sister, both of the latter living in Akron, O., survive. Burial was had in Akron.

CANARIS—Alexander, 62, comedian and magician, died August 4 at the Staten Island Hospital, Stapleton, S. I. Services were held at his home, 9 Norwood avenue, Stapleton, August 6.

CLAY—Kathleen, wife of Henry Clay, of the C. R. Leggette Shows, died at her home in Nevada, Mo., September 1. Mrs. Clay was 41 years old.

DeMAR—Joseph, father of Rose DeMar, died August 21 at his daughter's home in Chicago. Miss DeMar is of the widely known vaudeville team of Francis and DeMar.

DIEDERICH—Professor Emil, 57, famous cellist and once a soloist with the Thomas Orchestra, died in a sanitarium near Crown Point, Ind., September 4. Professor Thomas was born in Berlin and had played before the Imperial courts in Turkey, Germany, Greece, Russia and England. His last years were full of pathos, beginning with the death of his wife. He became afflicted with blindness the day of her demise.

EWING—Charles C., also known as Charles Roberts, carnival trouper, died in the Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburg, late last month, of drug poisoning. The deceased, according to acquaintances, was not a user of drugs. Pittsburg authorities have been seeking three men believed to have been in the company of Ewing shortly before his demise.

GILBERT—The father of Nan Gilbert, formerly of Al Tolson's "Bombo", died recently at his home in Duluth, Minn.

GORRELL—Oliver, father of Goldie Gorrell, of the Gorrell Producing Company, died at his daughter's home in Mystic, Ia., August 30. Mr. Gorrell was well known and liked by many professionals.

GROTEGUTH—Frank R., ex-circus trouper, died at his home in Quincy, Ill., August 10 after a protracted illness. Mr. Groteguth had traveled with nearly all the large circuses in the country as canvas man. Failing health caused him to retire from the road three years ago. He is survived by his parents, four sisters and one brother, the last mentioned residing at Freeport, Tex.

HARTWELL—Mrs. William, wife of the porter at the N. V. A. Club, New York City, died September 1 at her home, 252 West 47th street, New York, of a complication of diseases.

KNOWLES—J. Harry, who thirty years ago came to this country from England and entered the theatrical profession, died several days ago at the Orange General Hospital, Orange, Fla., of malarial fever, induced by complications. Knowles is said to have been one of the men to act before a motion picture camera. He had appeared in numerous movies, at various times during his career having been engaged by the Rex, Pathe, Biograph, Edison and Vitagraph companies. He had also appeared on the legitimate stage.

KROLOW—The mother of Olga and Vera Krolow died August 24 in Portland, Ore.

LEVY—Sol, of the Saenger Amusement Company, of New Orleans, died recently. Mr. Levy had been connected with the Saenger company since its formation.

LIARDET—Arthur Evelyn, 76, a former actor-manager well known in New York, died recently in London after several weeks' illness. The deceased had circumnavigated the globe four times during his career as actor and impresario and had supported Joseph Jefferson when that famous actor was touring Australia in "Rip Van Winkle". His wife was Miss Bostwick, of New York, once an active supporter of suffrage. Liardet came into prominence in connection with a reported gland operation which was said to have rejuvenated him, and his case was the subject of much interest in medical circles. He later developed a disorder which pulled him down rapidly and he sank into a semi-conscious state the latter part of August.

LOMBARDO—Joseph, a member of the band with the Virginia Exposition Shows, died at Greenville, Tenn., August 27, of apoplexy. The deceased's remains were interred in a Greenville cemetery.

LONGWITH—Mrs. W. T., mother of "Hap" Longwith, well-known carnival concessionaire, died at her home in Portland, Ind., August 31. Funeral services were held at her home and interment was in Green Park Cemetery, Portland.

LUKO—"Funny Little" Luko, as he was known, famous English clown, died August 4 at his home in South Yardley, Birmingham, England, after a painful illness, at the age of 45. He was ten or fifteen years ago one of the foremost clowns in England. His humor and quaint entrees were the delight of the old circuses of Hengler's and Ginnett's, while he toured somewhat extensively on the continent with Pinder's Circus. He came from the old school of circus and music hall performers, the Gilleno Family, and will be missed greatly thruout the profession.

NEGROTTO—John B., 57, veteran actor, who retired from the professional stage some fifteen or more years ago, died suddenly September 3 at the Hotel Vance, Utica, O. After leaving the professional stage Mr. Negrotto engaged in staging amateur shows and painting scenery for grange halls and small-town opera productions. He was born in New Orleans and is survived by his widow and 14-year-old son. The remains were taken to New Orleans for interment.

NICOLES—Nathaniel A., father of Mrs. O. T. Moates, actress, died at the home of his mother-in-law at Chatham, Ill., September 3 of heart disease. Mr. and Mrs. Moates had been members of "The Road to Understanding" Company, a repertoire organization, but left that show upon learning of Mr. Nicoles' demise. Funeral services were held at the Chatham Baptist Church and interment was in a Chatham cemetery.

O'ROURKE—Tom, well known to English professionals, particularly in the North Midlands, thru his association with Jazon and Montgomery and as agent for the Rotunda Theater, Liverpool, died August 20 in England after a few days' illness.

OVERHOLT—The father of Tom Overholt, of the popular vaudeville team of Overholt and Young, died recently at his home in Lima, O. He was about 65 years of age and a nonprofessional.

REDFERN—W. B., closely associated with the stage in Cambridge, England, died suddenly August 21 in England after returning from the funeral of his wife, who had died on the preceding Friday. His connections with the stage cover the entire range of actor, painter, manager and author. To him Cambridge owes the growth of its theater, for which he did much to secure comparative freedom from the old university restrictions. He was elected to the mayorship of the town for four years in succession during the eighties and it was then that an arrangement was reached whereby the university lost its absolute and repressive control of the theater license. In 1882 he obtained a lease of the old St. Andrew Hall, Cambridge, which he converted into a fairly comfortable hall-theater, and it was here that "The Private Secretary" was first produced by the late Sir Charles Hawtrey on November 13, 1883. As a manager Mr. Redfern kept before him a high ideal. To him the theater was something more than a mere money-making machine—it was an educational and recreative institution of high value—and under his watchful management the repute of the theater in Cambridge was consistently maintained at a high level. Besides his professional affiliations Mr. Redfern was an antiquary, justice of the peace and Mason.

RUPP—Mrs. Lillie, mother of Frank J. Rupp, secretary of Local No. 26, Harrisburg, Pa., of the International Alliance of Billposters and Billers of America, died at Harrisburg September 6 after a lingering illness. Mrs. Rupp was forty-nine years old. Interment was in Carlisle, Pa.

SCHLESINGER—Otto J., 43, brother of Charles H. Schlesinger, of Boston, well known in music and film circles, died August 31 in New York City of diabetes.

SCOTTY—Mrs., known as Mrs. Peter Bird and as Madam Dora, died at her home in Detroit September 3 after suffering from cancer of the stomach for a year. The deceased, who was the wife of "Little" Scotty, pitchman, was 41 years old. She is survived besides her husband, by three daughters and a grandson.

SURRELLS—John, his wife, Carrie Agnes Lick Surrells; her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Jelinek, and John Emery Surrells Gloyd, a relative, were all instantly killed on August 8 at Clinton, Ill., when the Daylight Special of the Illinois Central Railroad struck the automobile in which they were riding at a crossing. The party was returning from Sparta and Milwaukee, Wis. Agnes, the nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. Jelinek, escaped without injury. Funeral rites over the four bodies were held in Effingham, Ill., home of the Surrells family for several generations. John Surrells had been a concessionaire for a number of years, and is survived by his brothers, W. A., C. E. and E. O. Surrells, the last named familiarly known as "Aleck"; who is associated with Edward J. Beaver in the Beaver Famous Doll Co., 1325 Fond du Lac avenue, Milwaukee.

THOMPSON—"Stilz", balloonist, was killed in an automobile accident August 31. Details of the accident could not be learned.

VanDICK—Ernest, famous Wagnerian tenor, died in Antwerp, Belgium, September 3. The deceased was born in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1861. In his youth VanDick studied law, but abandoned that and soon became famous on the operatic stage. He sang four seasons in this country with the Metropolitan Opera Co., appearing here last in 1902. He had been teaching singing for the past several years. He married a daughter of Servais, noted Belgian composer.

WALTER—Wm. N., 57, famous cornet soloist and band leader, died at a hospital in Dubuque, Ia., August 18, after an illness that had lasted over a period of four years. Mr. Walter early in life evinced marked ability for playing the cornet. He made his first public appearance with the famous Walter Family Band, of McGregor, Ia., where William was born. After leaving the Walter Band he was with the Ransom Dramatic Company, then with Beach & Bowers' Minstrels, the Wallace Circus, Ringling Brothers' Circus, Primrose & West Minstrels and the Howe, Wall & Walter Vaudeville Company. For fifteen years, until his health failed four years ago, Mr. Walter was bandmaster and director of music for the Al G. Field Minstrels, and it was during this period that he toured over the entire United States, playing in practically all of the more important cities. So worthy were his musical programs that the "Dean of Minstrelsy" featured him and his band as "Billy Walter's Gold Band". In theatrical circles Walter was recognized as one of the best cornetists in the country. Mr. Walter was a member of Bezer Lodge, No. 135, F. and A. M., at McGregor; was a member of the Consistory at Clinton, Ia., and a member of the Dubuque Lodge of Elks, No. 297. Surviving are his mother, four sisters and one brother. Funeral services were conducted at Dubuque August 20, at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. F. Skemp, 440 Burch street, and at McGregor on August 21, at the home of his brother, Dr. J. A. Walter. Interment was in Pleasant Grove Cemetery, McGregor.

WILCOX—Howard (Howdy), 35, veteran Indianapolis (Ind.) automobile racer, was fatally injured while participating in the inaugural 200-mile race at the new Altoona (Pa.) Speedway on Labor Day and died in the emergency hospital at the speedway grounds a few minutes after the accident of a broken neck. Wilcox had participated in all of the 500-mile races at the Indianapolis Speedway, winning first place in 1919. He had been an automobile racing driver the past eighteen years. His widow, two children and his mother survive.
